one, asserting them to be of aquatic birds; but in my opinion, the former is different from the latter: as to the latter, it is a well-known kind of aquatic bird, so called because it is of the colour termed

vultur percnopterus, i.e. white inclining to dust-colour, [explained above, voice note], but as to the former bird, it is any bird that is not of prey; and the word is said to be a coll. gen. n., signifying the class of birds that are objects of prey: (TA:) ISk says that the

vultur percnopterus

slow in flight: (S, Mkb:) but IB says that this is a mistake in two points of view; first, because

is a [coll.] gen. n., of which the n. un. is with i, like as is that of

vultur percnopterus

; secondly, because it applies to the class of birds that do not prey: but the

is a bird of the colour of dust, and this may be a bird of prey, and it may be not a bird of prey: (TA:) AZ

says that the

signifies the [species of vulture called] ; and the n. un. is with i, others, the young ones of the vulture and birds of the crooked kind, [or birds like the hawks called] .

[pl. of

] not predaceous; (in the T, it is said to be a [kind of bird] like the haw called , that does not prey upon any other bird: (TA:) or and

and

vultur percnopterus

signify the worst [or most ignoble] of birds, (1st, K, the latter giving this as a second and distinct signification,) and such as do not prey: (1st, TA:) Fr says,

signifies the worst of birds, and such as do not prey, and

and

vultur percnopterus

are dial. vars.: (TA:) the pl. is

and

accord. to those who make a sing, (Yoo, S, Mkb, TA:) or accord. to those who make the sing, to be with i; (T, TA:) or those who apply a meaning [as a n. un.] to the male and the female make

to be pl. [or rather a coll. gen. n.] (Yoo, S, Mkb,) accord. to the former to be the inf. of 1. (TA,) and h.4. (T, TA.) You say,

or

and

vultur percnopterus

are terms of abuse, like as is that of

vultur percnopterus

; and this may be

a hawk of that colour; (TA:) a bird, so

signify a sheep or goat, and sheep or goats, in which are blackness and whiteness, with predominance of the latter colour: (TA:) or

and

signify a sheep or goat, and sheep or goats, in which are blackness and whiteness. (A.)—Also, (as a subst.,) a certain bird, (K, TA,) dust-coloured, in truth different from the

as shown above: see the latter word: (TA:) pl.

and

vultur percnopterus

(A,) You say,

is a bird of the colour thus called. (A.)—And

signifies The lion; (T, S, K,) because he is of the colour termed

vultur percnopterus

And

vultur percnopterus

The medley, or mixed or promiscuous multitude or collection, of men or people; or of the lowest or basest or meaniest sort, or refuse, or ruffian, thereof; (S, A, K,) the commonalty, or vulgar, and collective body, of the people: (S,) One says,

and

vultur percnopterus

Such a one went forth among the medley, &c., of the people. (A.) And

vultur percnopterus

We entered among the commonalty, or vulgar, and the collective body, of the people. (S.)

The sky rained a rain such as is termed

The land was watered by a rain such as is termed above what is called

or weak rain, small in its drops; as also

vultur percnopterus

then, the

the dim. of the last is

vultur percnopterus

Weak rain. (S, K)
